*Processional Hymn #309 "With Praises & Thanksgiving"

* Liturgy - Preparatory to the Holy Communion

¶ All stand

*Hymn "To avert from men God's wrath "

To avert from men God's wrath Jesus suffered in our stead;
By an ignominious death He a full atonement made;
And by His most precious blood, Brought us, sinners, nigh to God.

He who Jesus' mercy knows, Is from wrath and envy freed;
Love unto our neighbor shows That we are His flock indeed;
Thus we may in all our ways Show forth our Redeemer's praise.

Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive To the voice of my supplications.

If You, LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness you, that you may be feared.

I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, And in His word I do hope.

Beloved, draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

We will search our heart and try our ways and turn again to the Lord.

Hear what the Lord says; I am the Good Shepherd; the Good Shepherd gives His life for the sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me, and I give them eternal life.

¶ All shall sit or kneel . Silent prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, our only Mediator with God the Father, our mighty Savior and our glorious King, we humbly bow before you and confess our manifold transgressions.

We, your disciples, have often dishonored, in word and deed, the holy Name we bear, and have turned aside from that path of holiness and loving service, in which you have called us to follow. Pardon all our forgetfulness of your great love, our coldness of heart, our frequent conformity to the ways of the world, and our failure to labor for the extension of your kingdom.

Have mercy upon us, according to your loving-kindness; hide your face from our sins and blot out all our iniquities.

Grant us, through the communion of your Holy Supper, the assurance of our pardon, a greater power of sanctification, a closer union with you, and the joyous expectation of eternal life in the heavenly kingdom.

While in penitence we kneel,
Thy sweet presence let us feel,
All thy wondrous reveal.
From the bonds of sin release,
Cold and wavering faith increase,
Lamb of God grant us Thy peace. A. S. Sullivan

This is what the Lord says: I, even I, am He Who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and will not remember your sins. Go, and sin no more.

¶ All shall stand.

Bread of life, Bread of life,
Christ, by Whom alone we live,
Bread that came to us from Heaven,
My poor soul can never thrive,
Unless Thou appease its craving;
Lord I hunger only after thee,
Feed Thou me, feed Thou me. Amen.

*Dedication of Tithes and Offering:

Our Father, you are the God of boundless love that reaches out to all humanity; yet you do not lose any of us in the crowd. Even though we fall short and are undeserving of your love you are still with us. Help us to be more deserving and to give ourselves with love to our friends and others in a manner that glorifies your name. The Service for Holy Communion for New Year and Epiphany

¶ All shall stand.

Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all.

Amen.

Irish (14, M) Hymn 215

Come, let us join our cheerful songs, With angels round the throne:
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one.

"Worthy the Lamb Who died," they cry, "To be exalted thus!"

"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, "For He was slain for us!"

Jesus is worthy to receive, Honor and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give, Be, Lord, forever Thine.

¶ All shall sit or kneel.

Prayer by the Minister

¶ While singing the following, the communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship, signifying oneness in Christ.

Worship (159, A)      Hymn 491

We covenant with hand and heart, To follow Christ, our Lord;
With world, and sin, and self to part, And to obey His word;
To love each other heartily, In truth and in sincerity,
And under cross, reproach, and shame, To glorify His Name.

¶ The minister shall consecrate the bread.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He broke it, and gave it to His disciples, and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

¶ As the minister serves the bread, the communicants in each pew stand to receive it in the hand.

Stephanos (269, C)      Hymn 542

Now another stage of travel, Does the new year bring;
Brother pilgrims, be of courage— Christ is King!

All the way is rightly ordered, Though in rugged guise;
See, His presence points the pathway— Christ is wise!

Duke Carmen (167, G)      Hymn 579

At Thy feet, our God and Father, Who hast blessed us all our days,
We, with grateful hearts, would gather, To begin the year with praise—
Praise for light so brightly shining, On our steps from heaven above,
Praise for mercies daily twining, Round us golden cords of love.

Every day will be the brighter, When Thy gracious face we see;
Every burden will be lighter, When we know it comes from Thee.
Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us, Give us strength to serve and wait,
Till the glory breaks before us, Through the city's open gate.

West (582, C)      Hymn 53

My Shepherd is the Lamb, The living Lord, Who died;
With all that's truly good I am, Most plenteously supplied.
He richly feeds my soul, With manna from above,

And leads me where the rivers roll , Of everlasting love.
When faith and hope shall cease, And love prevail alone,
I then shall see Him face to face, And know as I am known.

Then I my Shepherd's care, Shall praise, and Him adore,
And in His Father's house shall share, True bliss for evermore.

Covenant (185, A) Hymn 570

To the soul who seeks Him Christ is gracious;
They who wait ne'er wait in vain,
But experience Him a God propitious;
He the feeble doth sustain;
On rich pastures, hungry souls He feedeth,
Those who thirst, to living waters leadeth,
Hears the needy sinner's cry,
And to help and save is nigh.

Swabia (582, K) Hymn 462

Jesus, we thus obey, Thy last and kindest word,
And in Thine own appointed way, We come to meet Thee, Lord!

Thus we remember Thee, And take this bread and wine
As Thine own dying legacy, And our redemption's sign.

Thy presence makes the feast; Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed, The joy unspeakable.

Now let our souls be fed, With manna from above,
And over us the banner spread , Of everlasting love.

Additional Hymns #324, #413

¶ When the bread has been served, the communicants shall stand and the minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ All shall partake together, after which all shall kneel or sit.

Silent prayer

¶ The minister shall say and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by the holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life,
sufferings, death, and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

¶ All shall stand.

Pilgrimage (166, A) Hymn 54

Ye followers of the Paschal Lamb,
Draw near and take the cup of God;
Approach unto the healing stream,
And drink of the atoning blood;
That blood for our redemption spilt,
Assuring us of purchased grace;
That blood which takes away all guilt,
And speaketh to the conscience peace.

¶ The minister shall consecrate the cup.

After the same manner also, our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink of it, all of you; this is My blood, the blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ As the minister serves the cup, the communicants in each pew stand to receive it in the hand.

Seelenbrlutigam (68, A) Hymn 370

Bliss beyond compare, which in Christ I share;
He's my only joy and treasure;
Tasteless is all worldly pleasure
When in Christ I share bliss beyond compare.

Jesus is my joy, therefore blest am I;
Oh, His mercy is unbounded,
All my hope on Him is grounded;
Jesus is my joy, therefore blest am I.

Dix (581, H) Hymn 94

As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light, Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to Thee.

As they offered gifts most rare At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy, Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring, Christ, to Thee our Heavenly King!

Holy Jesus, every day, Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past, Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

Ellacombe (151, R) Hymn 97

Hail to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free,
To take away transgression, And rule in equity.

He comes with succor speedy, To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy, And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing, Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying, Were precious in His sight.

Lindsey House (590, A) Hymn 269

In these our days exalt Thy grace,
Thy precious gospel spread;
That for the travail of Thy soul
Thou mayst behold Thy seed.
O may Thy knowledge fill the earth;
Increase the number still
Of those who in Thy word believe,
And do Thy holy will.

Hereto we gladly say, Amen;
We have this truth avowed,
That we in spirit, body, soul,
Are bound to serve our God,
Who touched, and drew, and wooed our hearts
And conquered us-by love;
To Him we here have pledged ourselves,
O may we faithful prove.

Wareham (22, II) Hymn 38

My song shall bless the Lord of all,
My praise ascend to His abode;
Thee, Savior, by that Name I call,
The great supreme, the mighty God.
Without beginning or decline,
Object of faith, and not of sense;
Eternal ages saw Him shine,
He shines eternal ages hence.

Additional Hymns #415, #502

¶ When the cup has been served, the communicants shall stand and the minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink of it, all of you. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ All shall partake together, after which all shall sit or kneel.

Silent prayer

¶ The minister shall say and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Who takest away the sin of the world, Give unto us Thy peace. Amen.

¶ All shall stand.

Sacrament (107, C) Hymn 282

As oft as we enjoy this blessing, Each sacred token doth declare
Thy dying love, all thoughts surpassing; And while we
Thee in memory bear, At each returning celebration,
We show Thy death for our salvation.

¶ The minister shall say and the communicants respond:

As often as you eat this bread, and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death,

Until He come.

¶ While singing the following, the communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship, signifying renewed dedication and unity of purpose in the service of Christ.

Covenant (185, A) Hymn 589

We who here together are assembled,
Joining hearts and hands in one,
Bind ourselves, with love that's undissembled,
Christ to love and serve alone.
O may our imperfect songs and praises
Be well-pleasing unto Thee, Lord Jesus.
Say: "My peace I leave with you."
Amen, Amen, be it so.

¶ The Elders will remove the elements:

Hymn # 255 R.B. "Onward, Christian Soldiers"

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before.
Christ, the royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle see His banners go!

*Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before.*

Like a mighty army moves the church of God;
Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod.

We are not divided, all one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, one in charity.

Crowns and thrones may perish, kingdoms rise and wane,
But the church of Jesus constant will remain.
Gates of hell can never gainst that church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise, and that cannot fail.

Onward then, ye people, join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices in the triumph song.
Glory, laud and honor unto Christ the King,
This through countless ages men and angels sing.

Benediction

The Lord bless you, and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace;

In the Name of Jesus. Amen.

*Recessional Hymn #581 (Red Book) "Standing at the Portal"

Standing at the portal, Of the opening year,
Words of comfort meet us, Hushing every fear;
Spoken thru the silence, By our Savior's voice,
Tender, strong and faithful, Making us rejoice.

Refrain

*Onward, then, and fear not, Children of the day;
For His Word shall never, Never pass away.*

"I, the Lord, am with thee, Be thou not afraid;
I will help and strengthen, Be thou not dismayed.
Yea, I will uphold thee, With My own right hand;
Thou art called and chosen, In My sight to stand."

For the year before us, O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy, Living streams shall rise;
For the sad and sinful, Shall His grace abound;
For the faint and feeble, Perfect strength be found.

He will never fail us, He will not forsake;
For His eternal covenant, He will never break.
Resting on the promise, What have we to fear?
God is all sufficient, For the coming year.

There was no room at the inn...

In 1987, MORAVIAN OPEN DOOR began its ministry to provide a home for homeless adults in Manhattan, NYC.

Today, Moravian Open Door provides safe and affordable transitional housing for 41 homeless adults in single and double rooms. It provides daily breakfast and supportive services to rebuild lives, to obtain jobs and benefits, with the goal of finding permanent affordable housing and learning the life skills to maintain it.

Residents at Moravian Open Door pay small monthly fees (often much of their limited income); this covers only about 50% of the operating costs for the facility and its staff.

Moravian Open Door receives no government funds. Donations from individuals, congregations, and other private sources must cover the rest of operating expenses.

Your contribution to the "No Room at the Inn" offering can help Moravian Open Door, the only urban social ministry of the Northern Province of the Moravian Church.

Becoming new people

On this day before Epiphany, let's consider what a baby born in a manger revealed to the world. You see, this is no mere child. This child can change who we are.

Isn't that what each of us really wants as we begin a new year? Don't we want to know deep in our heart that our life is more than just to exist for some period of time? Don't we want to know that our life matters?

A child was born, and we are given the opportunity to believe that this child has a power to offer us a choice. Yes, we're born into this world and live as a part of this world, but through the Christ child we have the invitation to live as a member of God's family. We are children of the dust who have the potential to claim a place as children of the Divine. When each of us came into this world, we brought with us an amazing amount of potential: to work, to love, to play, to create, and to contribute.

We know all too well how to live lives filled with inner conflict, manifest through anger, resentment, fear, hatred, guilt, and rejection. The revealed Christ child provides access to an enormous spiritual potential that offers a choice to manifest in us an out-of-this-world capacity for love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, and understanding.

By the power of God's gift through the Christ child, we can be changed into new people. The Christ child reveals God's love for us and helps us choose to reveal our own self as God's children.
